

Bid Express Small Business Training

INDOT is offering free Bid Express Training for DBE firms. Bid Express is an electronic bidding system for INDOT prime contractors. DBE firms will be able to log onto Bid Express and learn about contracting opportunities as well as the specific subcontracting needs of prime contractors. DBE firms can also use Bid Express to post an interest in performing a certain type of job on specific INDOT projects.

The training will take place at three different locations throughout the State on three different dates. Please see below for the schedule. Once you have determined the time and location most convenient for you, please register by sending an email with the following information to rrisk@indot.in.gov or by phone (317-232-5070), faxes not accepted. Please respond by December 29, 2006.
